

PERSONNEL REPORT

Monday, June 10, 2024

It is recommended that the Board of School Trustees approve the Personnel Report as presented. Salary to be determined upon verification of degree, training, and experience.

I. ADMINISTRATIVE RECOMMENDATIONS

Mrs. Angela Herold has requested compensation for a para to work on August 6 to disperse IEPs to staff in preparation for the arrival of special education students.

Mrs. Angela Herold submitted a compensation request for a WLIS and JSHS English learner and educator to administer the WIDA screener prior to the school year. The scheduled date is August 5.

Mrs. Angela Herold (WLIS) and Mrs. Rhonda Lanie (WLES) have requested approval to host an orientation with their special education paras on August 5. This essential training will cover reviewing the para handbook, expectations, student IEPs and de-escalation strategies.

Mrs. Marcella Holmes submitted a request to approve two additional hours for eight WLES lunch recess supervisors. The additional hours would allow WLES to provide professional development on the requirements and expectations to perform the job duties of the position.

Mrs. Shelby Johnson requested approval for District-wide TCIS Training which would allow staff to be trained in de-escalation strategies. The TSC is allowing two staff members to attend their "Train the Trainer" session at no charge. This will be held from June 3 – 7 from 8 a.m. to 4:15 p.m.

Mrs. Shelby Johnson submitted a request to pay Essential Skills Staff for packing at WLES and setting-up the classroom at WLIS.

Mrs. Shelby Johnson requested two hours of paid training for returning paraprofessionals and three hours of paid training for new paraprofessionals in order to distribute IEPs, collect data sheets, schedules and train on responsibilities.

Mrs. Shelby Johnson submitted a request for a Special Education Transition Event. This is for students and parents who are transitioning from WLIS to the WLJSHS to meet their TOR, tour the building, practice their schedule and ask any questions. The event is planned on August 1 from 5 – 6:30 p.m. Staff will be compensated for their time.
