Indiana Early Literacy Achievement Grant Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs)

The Indiana Department of Education (IDOE) has developed this FAQ resource to respond to questions posed by the field regarding the Early Literacy Achievement Grant. Up to $10,000,000 each fiscal year may be used for literacy achievement grants to school corporations and charter schools.

Number	Question	Answer
1	Was an application required for this grant opportunity?	No. The Early Literacy Achievement Grant is not a competitive grant. Local educational agencies (LEAs) that receive funds must submit information detailing how funds have been distributed. 2024 Early Literacy Achievement Grant allocation amounts for public school corporations and charter schools will be shared on Friday, December 6 and funds will be distributed by IDOE on Monday, December 16.
2	How are grant allocations determined?	Early Literacy Achievement Grant allocations are formulaically determined considering factors such as <ul style="list-style-type: none">• The number of students who participated in IREAD-3 in 2024;• The number of eligible students who achieved a passing score on IREAD-3 in 2024 (Spring and Summer Retest);• The school's complexity index;• The school's growth in reading proficiency rate;• The number of eligible students receiving special education services;• The average daily membership (ADM) count; and• The number of eligible English learner (EL) students.
3	What is the purpose of the Early Literacy Achievement Grant?	To support our statewide goal of ensuring 95% of Indiana's third grade students pass IREAD-3 by 2027, IDOE's Early Literacy Achievement Grant will award funds to Indiana public school corporations, and charter schools to support early literacy efforts. Through House Enrolled Act (HEA) 1001-2023, $10 million has been allocated in each year of the biennium to award cash stipends for teachers, instructional coaches, and other school staff responsible for the implementation and delivery of literacy and reading instruction through grade three.
4	How will grant recipients be notified?	On December 6, IDOE will announce grant allocation amounts for school corporations and charter schools through Dr. Jenner's Weekly Update . Distribution of funds will occur on Monday, December 16.
5	How should corporations/schools handle excess/undistributed	Excess/undistributed funds should be returned to IDOE via check by April 4, 2025, which should be mailed to:
