All new employees will serve a probationary period of thirty (30) workdays. No later than two days prior to the completion of the probationary period the employee shall receive a written evaluation concerning the employee's work performance to date. This evaluation shall be used to determine if the employee will be employed on a regular basis, terminated, or have the probationary period extended. The probationary period may be extended only one time for a period not to exceed thirty (30) workdays. During the extension, the employee shall be evaluated at least twice to determine job performance abilities. At the end of the extended probationary period, the employee shall be employed on a regular basis or terminated.

During the probationary period:

1. New employees shall be placed as appropriately as possible on the salary schedule. Previous experience will be considered, but is not the sole criteria for salary placement.
2. The official employment date of the employee shall be the first day of full-time regularly scheduled work on the school corporation payroll report.
3. Sick days and bereavement days shall not be compensated.
4. Requests for FMLA, family illness leave, personal business leave, and leave without pay shall not be granted.
5. Holiday pay shall be granted if the employee worked and was compensated for the regularly scheduled day prior to and the regularly scheduled day following the holiday.
6. If eligible for insurance benefits, coverage will begin the 1st of the month following the first full month worked.

Upon satisfactory completion of the probationary period, sick days, family illness leave and personal business leave shall be pro-rated for the remainder of the year.

An employee who has resigned and been rehired shall be treated as a new employee relative to vacation.

Personal Business Leave

Employees shall be given four (4) personal business days per year.

APPENDIX B

EMPLOYEE RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES UNDER THE FAMILY AND MEDICAL LEAVE ACT

Basic Leave Entitlement

FMLA requires covered employers to provide up to 12 weeks of unpaid, job-protected leave to eligible employees for the following reasons:

- for incapacity due to pregnancy, prenatal medical care or child birth;
- to care for the employee's child after birth, or placement for adoption or foster care;
- to care for the employee's spouse, son, daughter or parent, who has a serious health condition; or
- for a serious health condition that makes the employee unable to perform the employee's job.

Military Family Leave Entitlements

Eligible employees whose spouse, son, daughter or parent is on covered active duty or call to covered active duty status may use their 12-week leave entitlement to address certain qualifying exigencies. Qualifying exigencies may include attending certain military events, arranging for alternative childcare, addressing certain financial and legal arrangements, attending certain counseling sessions, and attending post-deployment reintegration briefings.

FMLA also includes a special leave entitlement that permits eligible employees to take up to 26 weeks of leave to care for a covered service member during a single 12-month period. A covered service member is: (1) a current member of the Armed Forces, including a member of the National Guard or Reserves, who is undergoing medical treatment, recuperation or therapy, is otherwise in outpatient status, or is otherwise on the temporary disability retired list, for a serious injury or illness*; or (2) a veteran who was discharged or released under conditions other than dishonorable at any time during the five-year period prior to the first date the eligible employee takes FMLA leave to care for the covered veteran, and who is undergoing medical treatment, recuperation, or therapy for a serious injury or illness.*

The FMLA definitions of "serious injury or illness" for current service members and veterans are distinct from the FMLA definition of "serious health condition".

Benefits and Protections

During FMLA leave, the employer must maintain the employee's health coverage under any "group health plan" on the same terms as if the employee had continued to work. Upon return from FMLA leave, most employees must be restored to their original or equivalent positions with equivalent pay, benefits, and other employment terms. Use of FMLA leave cannot result in the loss of any employment benefit that accrued prior to the start of an employee's leave.

Eligibility Requirements

Employees are eligible if they have worked for a covered employer for at least 12 months, have 1,250 hours of service in the previous 12 months*, and if at least 50 employees are employed by the employer within 75 miles.

Special hours of service eligibility requirements apply to airline flight crew employees.

Definition of Serious Health Condition

A serious health condition is an illness, injury, impairment, or physical or mental condition that involves either an overnight stay in a medical care facility, or continuing treatment by a health care provider for a condition that either prevents the employee from performing the functions of the employee's job, or prevents the qualified family member from participating in school or other daily activities.

Subject to certain conditions, the continuing treatment requirement may be met by a period of incapacity of more than 3 consecutive calendar days combined with at least two visits to a health care provider or one visit and a regimen of continuing treatment, or incapacity due to pregnancy, or incapacity due to a chronic condition. Other conditions may meet the definition of continuing treatment.

Use of Leave

An employee does not need to use this leave entitlement in one block. Leave can be taken intermittently or on a reduced leave schedule when medically necessary. Employees must make reasonable efforts to schedule leave for planned medical treatment so as not to unduly disrupt the employer's operations. Leave due to qualifying exigencies may also be taken on an intermittent basis.

Substitution of Paid Leave for Unpaid Leave

Employees may choose or employers may require use of accrued paid leave while taking FMLA leave. In order to use paid leave for FMLA leave, employees must comply with the employer's normal paid leave policies.

Employee Responsibilities

Employees must provide 30 days advance notice of the need to take FMLA leave when the need is foreseeable. When 30 days notice is not possible, the employee must provide notice as soon as practicable and generally must comply with an employer's normal call-in procedures.

Employees must provide sufficient information for the employer to determine if the leave may qualify for FMLA protection and the anticipated timing and duration of the leave. Sufficient information may include that the employee is unable to perform job functions, the family member is unable to perform daily activities, the need for hospitalization or continuing treatment by a health care provider, or circumstances supporting the need for military family leave. Employees also must inform the employer if the requested leave is for a reason for which FMLA leave was previously taken or certified. Employees also may be required to provide a certification and periodic recertification supporting the need for leave.

Employer Responsibilities

Covered employers must inform employees requesting leave whether they are eligible under FMLA. If they are, the notice must specify any additional information required as well as the employees' rights and responsibilities. If they are not eligible, the employer must provide a reason for the ineligibility.

Covered employers must inform employees if leave will be designated as FMLA-protected and the amount of leave counted against the employee's leave entitlement. If the employer determines that the leave is not FMLA-protected, the employer must notify the employee.

Unlawful Acts by Employers

FMLA makes it unlawful for any employer to:

- interfere with, restrain, or deny the exercise of any right provided under FMLA; and
- discharge or discriminate against any person for opposing any practice made unlawful by FMLA or for involvement in any proceeding under or relating to FMLA.

Enforcement

An employee may file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Labor or may bring a private lawsuit against an employer.

FMLA does not affect any Federal or State law prohibiting discrimination, or supersede any State or local law or collective bargaining agreement which provides greater family or medical leave rights.

FMLA section 109 (29 U.S.C. § 2619) requires FMLA covered employers to post the text of this notice. Regulation 29 C.F.R. § 825.300(a) may require additional disclosures.

APPENDIX B

EMPLOYEE RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES UNDER THE FAMILY AND MEDICAL LEAVE ACT

Basic Leave Entitlement

FMLA requires covered employers to provide up to 12 weeks of unpaid, job-protected leave to eligible employees for the following reasons:

- for incapacity due to pregnancy, prenatal medical care or child birth;
- to care for the employee's child after birth, or placement for adoption or foster care;
- to care for the employee's spouse, son, daughter or parent, who has a serious health condition; or
- for a serious health condition that makes the employee unable to perform the employee's job.

Military Family Leave Entitlements

Eligible employees whose spouse, son, daughter or parent is on covered active duty or call to covered active duty status may use their 12-week leave entitlement to address certain qualifying exigencies. Qualifying exigencies may include attending certain military events, arranging for alternative childcare, addressing certain financial and legal arrangements, attending certain counseling sessions, and attending post-deployment reintegration briefings.

FMLA also includes a special leave entitlement that permits eligible employees to take up to 26 weeks of leave to care for a covered service member during a single 12-month period. A covered service member is: (1) a current member of the Armed Forces, including a member of the National Guard or Reserves, who is undergoing medical treatment, recuperation or therapy, is otherwise in outpatient status, or is otherwise on the temporary disability retired list, for a serious injury or illness*; or (2) a veteran who was discharged or released under conditions other than dishonorable at any time during the five-year period prior to the first date the eligible employee takes FMLA leave to care for the covered veteran, and who is undergoing medical treatment, recuperation, or therapy for a serious injury or illness.*

The FMLA definitions of "serious injury or illness" for current service members and veterans are distinct from the FMLA definition of "serious health condition".

Benefits and Protections

During FMLA leave, the employer must maintain the employee's health coverage under any "group health plan" on the same terms as if the employee had continued to work. Upon return from FMLA leave, most employees must be restored to their original or equivalent positions with equivalent pay, benefits, and other employment terms. Use of FMLA leave cannot result in the loss of any employment benefit that accrued prior to the start of an employee's leave.

Eligibility Requirements

Employees are eligible if they have worked for a covered employer for at least 12 months, have 1,250 hours of service in the previous 12 months*, and if at least 50 employees are employed by the employer within 75 miles.

Special hours of service eligibility requirements apply to airline flight crew employees.

Definition of Serious Health Condition

A serious health condition is an illness, injury, impairment, or physical or mental condition that involves either an overnight stay in a medical care facility, or continuing treatment by a health care provider for a condition that either prevents the employee from performing the functions of the employee's job, or prevents the qualified family member from participating in school or other daily activities.

Subject to certain conditions, the continuing treatment requirement may be met by a period of incapacity of more than 3 consecutive calendar days combined with at least two visits to a health care provider or one visit and a regimen of continuing treatment, or incapacity due to pregnancy, or incapacity due to a chronic condition. Other conditions may meet the definition of continuing treatment.

Use of Leave

An employee does not need to use this leave entitlement in one block. Leave can be taken intermittently or on a reduced leave schedule when medically necessary. Employees must make reasonable efforts to schedule leave for planned medical treatment so as not to unduly disrupt the employer's operations. Leave due to qualifying exigencies may also be taken on an intermittent basis.

Substitution of Paid Leave for Unpaid Leave

Employees may choose or employers may require use of accrued paid leave while taking FMLA leave. In order to use paid leave for FMLA leave, employees must comply with the employer's normal paid leave policies.

Employee Responsibilities

Employees must provide 30 days advance notice of the need to take FMLA leave when the need is foreseeable. When 30 days notice is not possible, the employee must provide notice as soon as practicable and generally must comply with an employer's normal call-in procedures.

Employees must provide sufficient information for the employer to determine if the leave may qualify for FMLA protection and the anticipated timing and duration of the leave. Sufficient information may include that the employee is unable to perform job functions, the family member is unable to perform daily activities, the need for hospitalization or continuing treatment by a health care provider, or circumstances supporting the need for military family leave. Employees also must inform the employer if the requested leave is for a reason for which FMLA leave was previously taken or certified. Employees also may be required to provide a certification and periodic recertification supporting the need for leave.

Employer Responsibilities

Covered employers must inform employees requesting leave whether they are eligible under FMLA. If they are, the notice must specify any additional information required as well as the employees' rights and responsibilities. If they are not eligible, the employer must provide a reason for the ineligibility.

Covered employers must inform employees if leave will be designated as FMLA-protected and the amount of leave counted against the employee's leave entitlement. If the employer determines that the leave is not FMLA-protected, the employer must notify the employee.

Unlawful Acts by Employers

FMLA makes it unlawful for any employer to:

- interfere with, restrain, or deny the exercise of any right provided under FMLA; and
- discharge or discriminate against any person for opposing any practice made unlawful by FMLA or for involvement in any proceeding under or relating to FMLA.

Enforcement

An employee may file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Labor or may bring a private lawsuit against an employer.

FMLA does not affect any Federal or State law prohibiting discrimination, or supersede any State or local law or collective bargaining agreement which provides greater family or medical leave rights.

FMLA section 109 (29 U.S.C. § 2619) requires FMLA covered employers to post the text of this notice. Regulation 29 C.F.R. § 825.300(a) may require additional disclosures.

VOCATIONAL EDUCATION"

APPENDIX B

EMPLOYEE RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES UNDER THE FAMILY AND MEDICAL LEAVE ACT

Basic Leave Entitlement

FMLA requires covered employers to provide up to 12 weeks of unpaid, job-protected leave to eligible employees for the following reasons:

- for incapacity due to pregnancy, prenatal medical care or child birth;
- to care for the employee's child after birth, or placement for adoption or foster care;
- to care for the employee's spouse, son, daughter or parent, who has a serious health condition; or
- for a serious health condition that makes the employee unable to perform the employee's job.

Military Family Leave Entitlements

Eligible employees whose spouse, son, daughter or parent is on covered active duty or call to covered active duty status may use their 12-week leave entitlement to address certain qualifying exigencies. Qualifying exigencies may include attending certain military events, arranging for alternative childcare, addressing certain financial and legal arrangements, attending certain counseling sessions, and attending post-deployment reintegration briefings.

FMLA also includes a special leave entitlement that permits eligible employees to take up to 26 weeks of leave to care for a covered service member during a single 12-month period. A covered service member is: (1) a current member of the Armed Forces, including a member of the National Guard or Reserves, who is undergoing medical treatment, recuperation or therapy, is otherwise in outpatient status, or is otherwise on the temporary disability retired list, for a serious injury or illness*; or (2) a veteran who was discharged or released under conditions other than dishonorable at any time during the five-year period prior to the first date the eligible employee takes FMLA leave to care for the covered veteran, and who is undergoing medical treatment, recuperation, or therapy for a serious injury or illness.*

The FMLA definitions of "serious injury or illness" for current service members and veterans are distinct from the FMLA definition of "serious health condition".

Benefits and Protections

During FMLA leave, the employer must maintain the employee's health coverage under any "group health plan" on the same terms as if the employee had continued to work. Upon return from FMLA leave, most employees must be restored to their original or equivalent positions with equivalent pay, benefits, and other employment terms. Use of FMLA leave cannot result in the loss of any employment benefit that accrued prior to the start of an employee's leave.

Eligibility Requirements

Employees are eligible if they have worked for a covered employer for at least 12 months, have 1,250 hours of service in the previous 12 months*, and if at least 50 employees are employed by the employer within 75 miles.

Special hours of service eligibility requirements apply to airline flight crew employees.

Definition of Serious Health Condition

A serious health condition is an illness, injury, impairment, or physical or mental condition that involves either an overnight stay in a medical care facility, or continuing treatment by a health care provider for a condition that either prevents the employee from performing the functions of the employee's job, or prevents the qualified family member from participating in school or other daily activities.

Subject to certain conditions, the continuing treatment requirement may be met by a period of incapacity of more than 3 consecutive calendar days combined with at least two visits to a health care provider or one visit and a regimen of continuing treatment, or incapacity due to pregnancy, or incapacity due to a chronic condition. Other conditions may meet the definition of continuing treatment.

Use of Leave

An employee does not need to use this leave entitlement in one block. Leave can be taken intermittently or on a reduced leave schedule when medically necessary. Employees must make reasonable efforts to schedule leave for planned medical treatment so as not to unduly disrupt the employer's operations. Leave due to qualifying exigencies may also be taken on an intermittent basis.

Substitution of Paid Leave for Unpaid Leave

Employees may choose or employers may require use of accrued paid leave while taking FMLA leave. In order to use paid leave for FMLA leave, employees must comply with the employer's normal paid leave policies.

Employee Responsibilities

Employees must provide 30 days advance notice of the need to take FMLA leave when the need is foreseeable. When 30 days notice is not possible, the employee must provide notice as soon as practicable and generally must comply with an employer's normal call-in procedures.

Employees must provide sufficient information for the employer to determine if the leave may qualify for FMLA protection and the anticipated timing and duration of the leave. Sufficient information may include that the employee is unable to perform job functions, the family member is unable to perform daily activities, the need for hospitalization or continuing treatment by a health care provider, or circumstances supporting the need for military family leave. Employees also must inform the employer if the requested leave is for a reason for which FMLA leave was previously taken or certified. Employees also may be required to provide a certification and periodic recertification supporting the need for leave.

Employer Responsibilities

Covered employers must inform employees requesting leave whether they are eligible under FMLA. If they are, the notice must specify any additional information required as well as the employees' rights and responsibilities. If they are not eligible, the employer must provide a reason for the ineligibility.

Covered employers must inform employees if leave will be designated as FMLA-protected and the amount of leave counted against the employee's leave entitlement. If the employer determines that the leave is not FMLA-protected, the employer must notify the employee.

Unlawful Acts by Employers

FMLA makes it unlawful for any employer to:

- interfere with, restrain, or deny the exercise of any right provided under FMLA; and
- discharge or discriminate against any person for opposing any practice made unlawful by FMLA or for involvement in any proceeding under or relating to FMLA.

Enforcement

An employee may file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Labor or may bring a private lawsuit against an employer.

FMLA does not affect any Federal or State law prohibiting discrimination, or supersede any State or local law or collective bargaining agreement which provides greater family or medical leave rights.

FMLA section 109 (29 U.S.C. § 2619) requires FMLA covered employers to post the text of this notice. Regulation 29 C.F.R. § 825.300(a) may require additional disclosures.

Leave Time

It is very important that West Lafayette Community School Corporation Bus Driver's be available every possible workday during the school year. You are the first contact with our children. We understand that one must occasionally take sick days and bereavement days when the appropriate situation arises. For this reason, the School Corporation provides benefit days to you. It is not, however, a workable situation when an employee schedules themselves "out" for a period of time without prior approval of the Employer. "Each day during the school term, unless excused by the Employer, Driver shall operate his assigned bus upon the route or routes upon schedule fixed by the Employer. Driver shall faithfully and personally perform the work set out in this contract unless excused by the Employer, who in such case shall designate a substitute driver."

All requests for time off must be in writing. Employees should make every effort to schedule appointments outside their scheduled work hours. Use a request for time off form, available in the Transportation Office.

Request Leave Time

Submit the leave request form with a two-week advance notice to the Transportation Office.

Leave time may accumulate to a maximum of ten days (55hrs).

If you are ill more than three consecutive days you will need a doctor's note to return to work.

Bereavement Leave

In the case of each death in the immediate family, any employee is entitled to be absent without loss of compensation for a period, at the employee's discretion, extending not more than five consecutive working days. Such bereavement leave shall be exhausted no later than eight calendar days beyond such death (s). "Immediate" family is interpreted as including father, mother, brother, sister, husband, wife, child, grandparent, grandchild and each similar relationship established by marriage, and any other relative or legal dependent who, at the time of death, was living as a member of the household of the employee.

In the case of the death of an uncle, aunt, niece, nephew, or first cousin, and each similar relationship established by marriage, not living in the household of the employee, the employee is entitled to be absent one (1) day without loss of compensation.

The employee shall notify the Transportation Office before departing on the leave. Please provide documentation of attendance.

1. Students enrolled in kindergarten through 12th grade who live more than one mile from school are eligible for transportation to and from school. Kindergarten students who attend half (1/2) day shall be transported one way. Midday transportation will not be provided.
2. Students who live less than one mile from school may be transported if subjected to extreme safety hazards when walking to and from school. This will be determined through West Lafayette Community School Corporation Administration and the Transportation Department.
3. Collection points may be established along routes within reasonable walking distances from residences of students.
4. Transportation shall be provided as required by law for handicapped children and those attending special classes.
5. In the event that a bus cannot operate but the school is in session the students are expected to attend if possible.
6. Eligible students will be picked up and dropped off only at a point in the area designated by the West Lafayette Community School Corporation.

7. School bus routes, times and drivers are subject to change.

ALCOHOL AND CONTROLLED SUBSTANCE TESTING POLICY FOR COMMERCIAL DRIVERS LICENSE (CDL) EMPLOYEES

The Board of School Trustees for the West Lafayette Community School Corporation recognizes the critical and growing problem alcohol and controlled substance abuse poses to the transportation of its students. It is the policy of the school corporation to provide and maintain a safe, healthy and productive work environment for our drivers. This policy applies to all drivers and applicants for driver positions for the school corporation who must have a Commercial Driver's License (CDL) to operate school vehicles.

The use, possession, sale, purchase or transfer of any controlled substances except medically prescribed drugs on school property, while on school business, or while operating school vehicles and equipment, is prohibited. Drinking alcoholic beverages during working hours, 4 hours before reporting to work or having any measurable amount of alcohol in his/her system during working hours is prohibited, whether on or off school property. Working hours include all breaks. Off-duty use of drugs and alcohol is prohibited to the extent it affects a driver's attendance or performance and his/her ability to pass required DOT alcohol and controlled substance tests. Any violation of this policy is grounds for termination as a driver for the school corporation and possible legal prosecution.

Since physician-directed use of drugs can affect behavior and performance, drivers are encouraged to advise their supervisor whenever they are taking drugs for medical reasons. When such use of drugs adversely affects job performance or safety, it is in the best interest of the driver, co-workers, and the School Corporation that the driver takes sick or vacation days, or, if necessary, unpaid leave, in accordance with the School Corporation's leave policies.

The execution and enforcement of this policy will follow set procedures to screen body fluids, conduct breath testing, and/or search all employee/applicants for alcohol and drug use, and those employees suspected of violating this policy who are involved in a U.S. Department of Transportation (USDOT) reportable accident or who are periodically or randomly selected pursuant to this policy. The procedures are designed not only to detect violations of this policy but also to ensure fairness to each employee. Disciplinary action will be taken as necessary.

The Superintendent or designee is authorized to implement this policy and program, including a periodic review of the program to address any problems, changes, and/or revisions of it, maintenance of all records required by the federal regulations, and determination upon Board approval of how the program will be accomplished, whether in-house, contracted, or by consortium.

The Superintendent or designee is responsible for communicating this policy to all drivers and is accountable for its consistent enforcement. The Superintendent or designee is designated to answer questions about this policy and all other matters involved in alcohol and controlled substance testing of CDL drivers.

SAFETY-SENSITIVE FUNCTION -- DEFINED

Performing a safety-sensitive function means a driver is considered to be performing a safety-sensitive function during any period in which he or she is actually performing, ready to perform, or immediately available to perform any safety-sensitive functions.

A safety-sensitive function is deemed as:

All time spent at a facility, or other property, or on any public property, waiting to be dispatched, unless the driver has been relieved from duty by the school corporation.

All time spent inspecting equipment, otherwise inspecting, servicing, or conditioning any motor vehicle at any time.

All driving time spent at the driving controls of a motor vehicle in operation.

All time, other than driving time, in or upon any motor vehicle.

All time loading or unloading a vehicle, supervising, or assisting in the loading or unloading, attending a vehicle being loaded or unloaded, or remaining in readiness to operate the vehicle.

All time spent performing the driver requirements relating to an accident.

All time repairing, obtaining assistance, or remaining in attendance upon a disabled vehicle.

PROHIBITED CONDUCT

The following shall be considered prohibited conduct for purposes of this policy:

1. No employee shall report for duty or remain on duty requiring the performance of safety-sensitive functions while having an alcoholic concentration of .04 or greater.
2. No employee shall be on duty or operate a commercial vehicle while the employee possesses alcohol.
3. No employee shall use alcohol while performing safety-sensitive functions.
4. No employee shall perform a safety-sensitive function within 4 (four) hours after using alcohol.
5. No employee required to take a post-accident test shall use alcohol for 8 (eight) hours following the accident or until he or she undergoes a post-accident test, whichever occurs first.

6. No employee shall refuse to submit to a post-accident, random, reasonable suspicion, return-to-duty, or follow-up alcohol or drug test.
7. An employee is prohibited from reporting for duty or remaining on duty when the employee uses any controlled substance except when the use is pursuant to the written instructions of a physician who has advised the employee that the substance will not adversely affect their ability to safely perform their duties. The employee must provide the school corporation with proof of such medical advice. The transportation director can decide if the employee can remain at work or what work restrictions are necessary.
8. Any employee who is using a prescribed drug or other medication which is known or advertised as possibly affecting or impairing judgment, coordination, or other sense, or which may adversely affect the employees' ability to perform work in a safe and productive manner, must notify the transportation director prior to starting work. The transportation director will decide if the employee can remain at work or what work restrictions are necessary.
9. Ingestion of products that contain hemp will not be an acceptable explanation for testing positive for marijuana.

TESTING OF DRIVERS

All drivers will be tested for alcohol and drugs in accordance with the USDOT-approved procedures when directed by the Superintendent or designee.

Drivers will be tested under the following circumstances:

A. Pre-Employment

Under no circumstances will an individual be placed on the payroll without proof of a successful completion of a drug test. Any individual who refuses to submit to such a test or has a positive controlled substance test result will not be considered for employment with the school corporation.

B. Random

The school corporation will conduct random drug and alcohol tests. The corporation will submit all employees' names to a random selection system. Random selections will be spread throughout the year. The corporation will drug test 50% of the number of employees in each calendar year or at a rate established by the USDOT for the given year. The corporation will alcohol test 10% of the number of employees in each calendar year or at a rate established by the USDOT for the given year.

If an employee is selected at random for either test, the superintendent or designee will notify the employee. Once the employee is notified, he or she must proceed to the designated collection site immediately. If the employee does not go to the collections site as soon as possible after notification, such may be considered a refusal to test.

C. Post-Accident

Drivers are required to submit to drug and alcohol testing as soon as possible following a "DOT" accident that involves

1. fatality; or
2. The employee receives a citation for a moving violation arising from the accident that involved: a) bodily injury to a person who, as a result of the injury, receives medical treatment away from the scene of the accident; or b) one or more motor vehicles incurring disabling damage as a result of the accident, requiring the vehicle to be transported away from the scene by a tow truck or other vehicle.

A driver who is subject to post-accident testing shall remain readily available for such testing. Nothing in this section shall be construed to require the delay of necessary medical treatment or to prohibit the driver from leaving the scene of an accident for a period necessary to obtain assistance in responding to the accident, or to obtain necessary medical care.

No driver required to take a post-accident alcohol test shall use alcohol for eight hours following the accident, or until he/she undergoes a post-accident alcohol test, whichever occurs first.

If a driver is seriously injured and cannot submit to testing at the time of the accident, he/she shall provide the necessary authorization for obtaining hospital reports and other documents that would indicate whether there were any drugs or alcohol in his/her system.

The results of a breath or blood test for the use of alcohol or a urine test for the use of drugs conducted by Federal, State, or local officials having independent authority for the test shall be considered to meet the requirements for post-accident testing if the results are obtained by the school corporation.

D. Reasonable Suspicion

The School Corporation is required to test for the use of alcohol and controlled substances upon "reasonable suspicion". A reasonable suspicion test is required when based upon specific, contemporaneous, and articulable observation concerning the behavior, speech, body odor, or appearance of a driver while on duty are indicative of the use of alcohol and/or controlled substances. A supervisor or the Transportation Director who is so trained in accordance with the USDOT regulations must witness the conduct. The mere possession of alcohol does not constitute a need for an alcohol test. The witness must have received training in the detection of probable alcohol and drug use by observing a person's behavior. The witness shall not conduct the alcohol test of the driver.

Alcohol testing is authorized only if the observations are made during, just before, or just after the period of the workday of the driver. A written record shall be made of the observations leading to an alcohol and/or controlled substance test. This record is to be signed by the supervisor who made the observations.

If a reasonable suspicion alcohol test is not administered within two hours following the observations, the witness shall prepare and maintain on file a record stating the reasons the alcohol test was not administered promptly. In addition, if not administered within eight hours, all attempts to administer the test shall cease. A record shall be prepared and maintained stating why the alcohol test was not administered.

E. Return to Duty Testing

A return to duty test will be required for all employees who have violated this policy. The employee may not return to duty until he or she passes a drug test and/or tests below a .02 for breath alcohol and the medical review officer (MRO) or the substance abuse professional (SAP) and the school corporation have determined that the employee may return to duty.

F. Follow-Up Testing

Any employee who has returned to work following a violation of this drug and alcohol policy will be subject to follow-up testing. At a minimum six follow-up tests will be required within the first 12 months following an employee's return to work and less frequently during the next 4 years. Employees will be tested in accordance with USDOT regulations and the recommendations of the SAP.

Testing Procedures

The following testing procedures are to be strictly observed by any collection facility and/or laboratory contracted with by the school corporation in order to carry out its drug and alcohol testing program.

Controlled substance testing procedures include the following:

I. Chain of Custody

Chain of custody is defined as procedures to account for the integrity of each urine specimen by tracking its handling and storage from point of specimen collection to final disposition of the specimen. These procedures will require an approved chain-of-custody form.

2. Preparation for Testing

A. Use of tamperproof seal system designed in a manner that a specimen bottle top can be sealed against undetected opening and the bottle has a means for identification of the test subject, either by number or some other confidential manner.

B. Use of shipping container in which one or more specimens and associated paper work may be transferred and which can be sealed and initialed to prevent undetected tampering.

3. Specimen Collection

Specimen collection will be done at collection sites designated by the School Corporation.

4. Laboratory Analysis
Laboratory analysis of all specimens collected will be done by companies designated by the Board and conducted under all federal guidelines.

Controlled Substance Testing Protocol

Urine Collection Procedures:

1. The testing procedure starts with the collection of a urine specimen.
2. Collection procedures will follow the specific guidelines set forth by the USDOT as outlined in the published collection procedures guidelines.
3. Employees will be directed to empty their pockets and display the contents to the collector.
4. Employees will be allowed privacy during the collection process except as noted in number 5 below.
5. Observed collections are required by USDOT if:
 - a. The specimen is determined invalid and there is no medical explanation
 - b. The collector observes evidence of an employee's attempt to tamper with the specimen.
 - c. The temperature of the specimen is out of range.
 - d. The specimen appears to have been tampered with.
6. Observed collections may be required on return to duty and follow-up tests.
7. As part of the collection process, the specimen provided will be split into two portions; a primary specimen and a secondary (split) specimen.
8. If the employee is unable to provide 45 ml of urine, the DOT "shy bladder" rule will apply. The employee will have up to 3 hours to provide the required 45 ml, and may consume up to 40 ounces of fluids during this time period. The employee will be required to be monitored during the waiting period.
9. After collection, the specimen will be submitted to a SAMHSA certified laboratory for testing.

Laboratory Procedures:

Drug testing will be performed through urinalysis. Urinalysis will test for the presence of drugs and/or metabolites of the following controlled substances:

1. Marijuana;
2. Cocaine;
3. Opiates;
4. Amphetamines
5. Phencyclidine (PCP).

The SAMHSA certified laboratory will perform initial screenings on all primary specimens. In the event that the primal specimen tests positive, a confirmation test of that specimen will automatically be performed. If the confirmatory test is positive, it will be reported to the Medical Review Officer (MRO) as a positive.

Validity Testing:

The laboratory must also perform validity testing on each specimen received. The purpose of validity testing is to determine whether certain adulterants or foreign substances were added to the urine, if the urine was diluted, or if the specimen was substituted. The following will be measured: creatinine level, specific gravity, and pH. In addition, all specimens will be tested for known adulterants. An initial validity test is performed first, followed by a confirmation test as required.

All laboratory results will be reported by the laboratory to a MRO designated by the Company or its agents.

MRO Procedures:

1. All tests results will undergo a review process by the MRO.
2. Negative test results will be reported directly to the school corporation by the MRO.
3. Positive, adulterated or substituted results will be handled in the following manner by the MRO:
 - a. Before reporting a positive, adulterated or substituted test result to the school corporation, the MRO will attempt to contact the employee to discuss the test result.
 - b. The employee is required to discuss the result with the MRO. The employee will be allowed to explain and present medical documentation to explain any permissible use of a drug.
 - c. For adulterated or substituted results, the employee must demonstrate that he or she did produce or could have produced urine, through physiological means, a specimen meeting the creatinine and specific gravity criteria of a substituted or adulterated specimen.

- d. If the MRO is unable to contact the employee directly, the MRO will contact the Superintendent or designee who shall contact the employee and direct the employee to contact the MRO. Upon being so directed, the employee shall contact the MRO immediately or, if the MRO is unavailable, at the start of the MRO's next business day.
 - e. If, after failing to contact the MRO within 72 hours after being instructed to do so by the Superintendent or designee, or if the employee cannot be contacted at all within ten (10) days, or the employee expressly declines the opportunity to discuss the test, the MRO may verify the test as positive or a refusal.
 - f. In the MRO's sole discretion, a determination will be made as to whether a result is verified as positive, negative or considered a refusal.
 - g. After any verified positive or refusal to test determination, the employee may petition the MRO to reopen the case for reconsideration.
4. Diluted Specimens: If a specimen is reported diluted by the laboratory, the MRO will report this information to the Superintendent or designee. The school corporation requires an immediate recollect for another test. The result of this test will stand as the final result.

Medical Information Disclosure:

Pursuant to USDOT regulations, if, in the MRO's opinion, any information provided may mean a medical disqualification or represent a safety hazard, such as the use of certain prescription drugs, the MRO must disclose this to the school corporation. Individual test results for applicants and employees will be released to the school corporation and will be kept strictly confidential unless consent for the release of the test result has been obtained.

Split Specimen Testing Protocol

An employee may request that the "split" portion of his/her specimen be tested at a different SAMHSA laboratory if he/she was notified by the MRO that his/her test result was positive, adulterated or substituted. The request must be made to the MRO within 72 hours of being notified of a verified positive, adulterated or substituted result. The MRO will arrange for all procedures to be done in accordance with split specimen testing procedures.

The cost of a split specimen test will be the responsibility of the employee. The school corporation will withhold the amount of the cost of testing the split specimen from the employee's pay unless other arrangements are acceptable to both the employee and the school corporation. If the employee makes a timely request to the MRO for the split portion to be tested, the MRO shall immediately make arrangements with the laboratory to initiate the process.

Alcohol Testing Procedures

1. Testing Devices

Alcohol tests are to be conducted with only evidential breath testing devices (EBT's) approved by the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA) on their Conforming Products List (CPL). The rules allow the use of PBT's for the initial screening test that is on the CPL, that does not meet the additional requirements for the confirmation test (e.g. sequential numbering and print-out capability).

2. Test Administrators

Only a Breath Alcohol Technician (BAT) that has had proper training may administer breath alcohol tests. Reasonable cause tests may not be conducted by the person making the determination that reasonable suspicion exists to conduct an alcohol test.

3. Test Procedures

The BAT will perform an initial alcohol screen. If the initial screen results in a Blood Alcohol Concentration (BAC) of .02% or above, a confirmation test is required. Any tests resulting in a BAC of less than .02% will be considered negative.

The BAT will wait a minimum of 15 minutes, before administering the confirmation test. Confirmation tests must be performed within 30 minutes. If the confirmation test indicates a BAC of .020 to .039, the employee shall be removed from duty for 24 hours or until his/her next scheduled on-duty time, whichever is longer. Employees with test indicating a BAC of .04 or greater are considered to have engaged in prohibited conduct which may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. All alcohol tests shall be performed just prior to, during or just after performing a safety sensitive function.

Refusal to Test

Refusal to submit to the types of drug and alcohol test required by this policy will be grounds to discipline CDL employees. A refusal to test include any of the following situations:

1. Failing to appear for any test within a reasonable time after being directed to do so.
2. Failing to remain at the testing site until the testing process is completed.
3. Failure to provide a breath sample, saliva sample or urine sample as directed.
4. Failure to permit, if the situation requires, the observation or monitoring of providing a urine specimen.
5. Failure to provide a urine, breath or saliva specimen within required time frames may be considered a refusal. If an employee cannot produce a sufficient quantity of urine or breath, he/she will be directed to be evaluated by a physician of the corporation's choice. If the physician cannot find a legitimate medical explanation for the inability to provide a specimen, it will be considered a refusal to test. In that circumstance the employee has violated one of the prohibitions of the USDOT regulations.
6. Failure to undergo a medical examination or evaluation as directed by the MRO as part of the verification process or as directed by the transportation director as part of the "shy bladder" or "insufficient breath" situation.
7. Failure or declining to take a second test as required by USDOT regulations.

Failure to cooperate with any part of the testing process and/or conduct that would obstruct the proper administration of a test. (e.g., refusing to empty pockets when so directed by the collector or behave in a confrontational way that disrupts the collection process.
8. Refusing to sign step two of the alcohol testing form.
9. A report from the MRO that the employee has a verified adulterated or substituted test result.

Confidentiality

All information obtained in the course of testing of drivers shall be protected as confidential medical information.

No data concerning this information will be made a part of the employee's personnel file or will be provided to any other party without the direct written consent of the driver.

Employees are entitled upon written request to obtain copies of any records pertaining to his or her alcohol or controlled substance tests.

The school corporation may release information as follows:

Disciplinary Actions for Policy Violations

Drivers found to commit any conduct prohibited by this policy, including refusal to test, and/or testing positive for alcohol (.04 or greater) or for a controlled substance shall be prohibited from driving or performing a safety-sensitive function for the school corporation.

Such employee will be provided with the names, addresses, and telephone numbers of qualified substance abuse professionals (SAPs) who are approved by the school corporation. To be able to return to duty the employee must complete the following steps:

1. Complete an evaluation with a SAP.
2. Complete any rehabilitation and/or evaluation required by the SAP.
3. Be re-evaluated by the SAP and obtain written confirmation of satisfactory completion of all recommendations.
4. Complete a return to duty test that is issued with a negative result.
5. As a condition of continued employment, the employee will be required to submit to a minimum of 6 unannounced follow-up tests in the next 12 months after returning to work.

Follow-up testing is separate from and in addition to the reasonable suspicion, post-accident, and random testing. The schedule of follow-up testing shall be unannounced and in accordance with the instructions of the SAP. The cost of any SAP evaluation, prescribed treatment and follow-up testing shall be paid for by the employee. In addition, the employee will be subject to any school corporation policy dealing with the use of alcohol and controlled substances.

Drivers testing .02 or greater but less than .04 shall not drive or perform safety sensitive functions for the school corporation, nor shall the school corporation permit the driver to perform or continue to perform safety-sensitive functions, until the start of the driver's next regularly scheduled duty period, but not less than 24 hours following administration of the test. The driver also becomes subject to any other school corporation policy dealing with the use of alcohol and controlled substances. The school corporation reserves the right to terminate an employee who tests .02 or higher.

Educational Materials

The school corporation will provide education materials that explain the requirements of Federal Motor Carrier Safety regulations, consequences of violating the regulations, and the corporation's policies and procedures with respect to meeting these requirements. Materials will also be provided concerning the effects of alcohol and controlled substances use on an individual's health, work and personal life. Employees are required to attend an educational meeting to discuss the corporation's policies and procedures and to review all materials covered by this policy. Each employee is required to sign a statement certifying that he or she has received a copy of these materials. The corporation will provide these materials to employees prior to the start of the testing required by this policy and to any employee who is hired or transferred into a position requiring a CDL.

EMPLOYEE RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES UNDER THE FAMILY AND MEDICAL LEAVE ACT

Basic Leave Entitlement

FMLA requires covered employers to provide up to 12 weeks of unpaid, job-protected leave to eligible employees for the following reasons:

- for incapacity due to pregnancy, prenatal medical care or child birth;
- to care for the employee's child after birth, or placement for adoption or foster care;
- to care for the employee's spouse, son, daughter or parent, who has a serious health condition; or
- for a serious health condition that makes the employee unable to perform the employee's job.

Military Family Leave Entitlements

Eligible employees whose spouse, son, daughter or parent is on covered active duty or call to covered active duty status may use their 12-week leave entitlement to address certain qualifying exigencies. Qualifying exigencies may include attending certain military events, arranging for alternative childcare, addressing certain financial and legal arrangements, attending certain counseling sessions, and attending post-deployment reintegration briefings.

FMLA also includes a special leave entitlement that permits eligible employees to take up to 26 weeks of leave to care for a covered service member during a single 12-month period. A covered service member is: (1) a current member of the Armed Forces, including a member of the National Guard or Reserves, who is undergoing medical treatment, recuperation or therapy, is otherwise in outpatient status, or is otherwise on the temporary disability retired list, for a serious injury or illness*; or (2) a veteran who was discharged or released under conditions other than dishonorable at any time during the five-year period prior to the first date the eligible employee takes FMLA leave to care for the covered veteran, and who is undergoing medical treatment, recuperation, or therapy for a serious injury or illness.*

The FMLA definitions of "serious injury or illness" for current service members and veterans are distinct from the FMLA definition of "serious health condition".

Benefits and Protections

During FMLA leave, the employer must maintain the employee's health coverage under any "group health plan" on the same terms as if the employee had continued to work. Upon return from FMLA leave, most employees must be restored to their original or equivalent positions with equivalent pay, benefits, and other employment terms. Use of FMLA leave cannot result in the loss of any employment benefit that accrued prior to the start of an employee's leave.

Eligibility Requirements

Employees are eligible if they have worked for a covered employer for at least 12 months, have 1,250 hours of service in the previous 12 months*, and if at least 50 employees are employed by the employer within 75 miles.

Special hours of service eligibility requirements apply to airline flight crew employees.

Definition of Serious Health Condition

A serious health condition is an illness, injury, impairment, or physical or mental condition that involves either an overnight stay in a medical care facility, or continuing treatment by a health care provider for a condition that either prevents the employee from performing the functions of the employee's job, or prevents the qualified family member from participating in school or other daily activities.

Subject to certain conditions, the continuing treatment requirement may be met by a period of incapacity of more than 3 consecutive calendar days combined with at least two visits to a health care provider or one visit and a regimen of continuing treatment, or incapacity due to pregnancy, or incapacity due to a chronic condition. Other conditions may meet the definition of continuing treatment.

Use of Leave

An employee does not need to use this leave entitlement in one block. Leave can be taken intermittently or on a reduced leave schedule when medically necessary. Employees must make reasonable efforts to schedule leave for planned medical treatment so as not to unduly disrupt the employer's operations. Leave due to qualifying exigencies may also be taken on an intermittent basis.

Substitution of Paid Leave for Unpaid Leave

Employees may choose or employers may require use of accrued paid leave while taking FMLA leave. In order to use paid leave for FMLA leave, employees must comply with the employer's normal paid leave policies.

Employee Responsibilities

Employees must provide 30 days advance notice of the need to take FMLA leave when the need is foreseeable. When 30 days notice is not possible, the employee must provide notice as soon as practicable and generally must comply with an employer's normal call-in procedures.

Employees must provide sufficient information for the employer to determine if the leave may qualify for FMLA protection and the anticipated timing and duration of the leave. Sufficient information may include that the employee is unable to perform job functions, the family member is unable to perform daily activities, the need for hospitalization or continuing treatment by a health care provider, or circumstances supporting the need for military family leave. Employees also must inform the employer if the requested leave is for a reason for which FMLA leave was previously taken or certified. Employees also may be required to provide a certification and periodic recertification supporting the need for leave.

Employer Responsibilities

Covered employers must inform employees requesting leave whether they are eligible under FMLA. If they are, the notice must specify any additional information required as well as the employees' rights and responsibilities. If they are not eligible, the employer must provide a reason for the ineligibility.

Covered employers must inform employees if leave will be designated as FMLA-protected and the amount of leave counted against the employee's leave entitlement. If the employer determines that the leave is not FMLA-protected, the employer must notify the employee.

Unlawful Acts by Employers

FMLA makes it unlawful for any employer to:

- interfere with, restrain, or deny the exercise of any right provided under FMLA; and
- discharge or discriminate against any person for opposing any practice made unlawful by FMLA or for involvement in any proceeding under or relating to FMLA.

Enforcement

An employee may file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Labor or may bring a private lawsuit against an employer.

FMLA does not affect any Federal or State law prohibiting discrimination, or supersede any State or local law or collective bargaining agreement which provides greater family or medical leave rights.

FMLA section 109 (29 U.S.C. § 2619) requires FMLA covered employers to post the text of this notice. Regulation 29 C.F.R. § 825.300(a) may require additional disclosures.

Leave is allocated after the 30-day probationary period. Any employee that terminates employment throughout the year will be required to pay back the school corporation any monies paid for leave used, but unearned. Leave shall be taken in half or full-day increments.

Vacation Leave

An employee shall receive (4) weeks' vacation (pro-rated if hired after July 1) to be taken during the first handbook year.

Each handbook year thereafter, an employee who has worked during the previous handbook year shall be granted four (4) weeks' vacation.

Earned vacation time rolls over from year to year, without loss of earned time. Any central office staff who have accumulated over 20 vacation days may sell back (at their daily rate in effect on June 1 of the given year), a limited number of vacation days, not to exceed 25 vacation days per year. Requests must be made in writing to the CFO by June 1 of each year, with payout occurring on the first payroll in July of each year.

Designated holidays occurring during the vacation period of an employee shall not be charged as vacation time.

In all cases, vacation dates will be selected in such a manner that sufficient 12 month clerical personnel are on duty throughout the vacation periods. Vacation requests shall be approved by the immediate supervisor.

An employee who has resigned and been rehired shall be treated as a new employee relative to vacation.

Personal Business Leave

Employees shall be given four (4) personal business days per year.

Personal business days shall be for business of a nature that cannot be scheduled outside of work hours. Under normal circumstances, personal business leave requests must be submitted to the appropriate administrator three (3) days prior to the leave.

Personal leave requests for days preceding and following weekends, holidays, vacations, etc., must include a reason for the request and are subject to review prior to approval or disapproval.

At the close of each year unused personal business days shall be applied to the accumulated sick leave until the maximum number of days is reached.

Sick Leave

Employees shall be given twelve (12) sick leave days each year. The purpose of sick leave is to protect the employee's income during periods of personal illness. Employees may be required, by Supervisor, to present a doctor's note.

If, in any one work year the employee shall be absent less than the prescribed number of days, the unused sick leave days shall be accumulated up to 183 days.

Maternity Leave *Contact your Administrator to obtain the necessary form(s)

An employee who is pregnant may continue in active employment as late into pregnancy as she desires, if she is able to fulfill the requirements of her position. Temporary disabilities caused by pregnancy shall be governed by the same provisions governing sickness and by the following:

1. An employee who is pregnant is entitled to a leave of absence at any time between the commencement of her pregnancy and one (1) year following the birth of the child, if, except in a medical emergency, she notifies the Superintendent of Schools at least thirty (30) days before the date on which she desires to start her leave. She shall also notify the Superintendent of Schools of the expected length of this leave. In case of a medical emergency caused by pregnancy, the employee shall be granted a leave, as otherwise provided in this section, immediately upon request.

Such bereavement leave shall be exhausted no later than eight (8) calendar days beyond such death(s), but extenuating circumstances subject to approval by the Building Principal or Administrator may warrant an extension of the eight (8) day time limitation. Immediate family is interpreted as including husband, wife, child, sister, brother, mother, father, grandchild, grandparent, and each similar relationship established by marriage, and any other relative or legal dependent who, at the time of death, was living as a member of the household. The employee shall receive regular base salary minus the subpoena fee received only if the subpoena is connected with an employee's fulfillment of job related duties.

The employee shall turn in the summons to their supervisor to be attached to their absence report and/or time sheet. The employee will have thirty (30) days to turn in a copy of the check received from the court. APPENDIX B

Basic Leave Entitlement

FMLA requires covered employers to provide up to 12 weeks of unpaid, job-protected leave to eligible employees for the following reasons:

- for incapacity due to pregnancy, prenatal medical care or child birth;
- to care for the employee's child after birth, or placement for adoption or foster care;
- to care for the employee's spouse, son, daughter or parent, who has a serious health condition; or
- for a serious health condition that makes the employee unable to perform the employee's job.

Military Family Leave Entitlements

Eligible employees whose spouse, son, daughter or parent is on covered active duty or call to covered active duty status may use their 12-week leave entitlement to address certain qualifying exigencies. Qualifying exigencies may include attending certain military events, arranging for alternative childcare, addressing certain financial and legal arrangements, attending certain counseling sessions, and attending post-deployment reintegration briefings.

FMLA also includes a special leave entitlement that permits eligible employees to take up to 26 weeks of leave to care for a covered service member during a single 12-month period. A covered service member is: (1) a current member of the Armed Forces, including a member of the National Guard or Reserves, who is undergoing medical treatment, recuperation or therapy, is otherwise in outpatient status, or is otherwise on the temporary disability retired list, for a serious injury or illness*; or (2) a veteran who was discharged or released under conditions other than dishonorable at any time during the five-year period prior to the first date the eligible employee takes FMLA leave to care for the covered veteran, and who is undergoing medical treatment, recuperation, or therapy for a serious injury or illness.*

The FMLA definitions of "serious injury or illness" for current service members and veterans are distinct from the FMLA definition of "serious health condition".

Benefits and Protections

During FMLA leave, the employer must maintain the employee's health coverage under any "group health plan" on the same terms as if the employee had continued to work. Upon return from FMLA leave, most employees must be restored to their original or equivalent positions with equivalent pay, benefits, and other employment terms. Use of FMLA leave cannot result in the loss of any employment benefit that accrued prior to the start of an employee's leave.

Eligibility Requirements

Employees are eligible if they have worked for a covered employer for at least 12 months, have 1,250 hours of service in the previous 12 months*, and if at least 50 employees are employed by the employer within 75 miles.

Special hours of service eligibility requirements apply to airline flight crew employees.

Definition of Serious Health Condition

A serious health condition is an illness, injury, impairment, or physical or mental condition that involves either an overnight stay in a medical care facility, or continuing treatment by a health care provider for a condition that either prevents the employee from performing the functions of the employee's job, or prevents the qualified family member from participating in school or other daily activities.

Subject to certain conditions, the continuing treatment requirement may be met by a period of incapacity of more than 3 consecutive calendar days combined with at least two visits to a health care provider or one visit and a regimen of continuing treatment, or incapacity due to pregnancy, or incapacity due to a chronic condition. Other conditions may meet the definition of continuing treatment.

Use of Leave

An employee does not need to use this leave entitlement in one block. Leave can be taken intermittently or on a reduced leave schedule when medically necessary. Employees must make reasonable efforts to schedule leave for planned medical treatment so as not to unduly disrupt the employer's operations. Leave due to qualifying exigencies may also be taken on an intermittent basis.

Substitution of Paid Leave for Unpaid Leave

Employees may choose or employers may require use of accrued paid leave while taking FMLA leave. In order to use paid leave for FMLA leave, employees must comply with the employer's normal paid leave policies.

Employee Responsibilities

Employees must provide 30 days advance notice of the need to take FMLA leave when the need is foreseeable. When 30 days notice is not possible, the employee must provide notice as soon as practicable and generally must comply with an employer's normal call-in procedures.

Employees must provide sufficient information for the employer to determine if the leave may qualify for FMLA protection and the anticipated timing and duration of the leave. Sufficient information may include that the employee is unable to perform job functions, the family member is unable to perform daily activities, the need for hospitalization or continuing treatment by a health care provider, or circumstances supporting the need for military family leave. Employees also must inform the employer if the requested leave is for a reason for which FMLA leave was previously taken or certified. Employees also may be required to provide a certification and periodic recertification supporting the need for leave.

Employer Responsibilities

Covered employers must inform employees requesting leave whether they are eligible under FMLA. If they are, the notice must specify any additional information required as well as the employees' rights and responsibilities. If they are not eligible, the employer must provide a reason for the ineligibility.

Covered employers must inform employees if leave will be designated as FMLA-protected and the amount of leave counted against the employee's leave entitlement. If the employer determines that the leave is not FMLA-protected, the employer must notify the employee.

Unlawful Acts by Employers

FMLA makes it unlawful for any employer to:

- interfere with, restrain, or deny the exercise of any right provided under FMLA; and
- discharge or discriminate against any person for opposing any practice made unlawful by FMLA or for involvement in any proceeding under or relating to FMLA.

Enforcement

An employee may file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Labor or may bring a private lawsuit against an employer.

FMLA does not affect any Federal or State law prohibiting discrimination, or supersede any State or local law or collective bargaining agreement which provides greater family or medical leave rights.

FMLA section 109 (29 U.S.C. § 2619) requires FMLA covered employers to post the text of this notice. Regulation 29 C.F.R. § 825.300(a) may require additional disclosures.

The probationary period may be extended only one time for a period not to exceed thirty (30) workdays. During the extension, the employee shall be evaluated at least twice to determine job performance abilities. At the end of the extended probationary period, the employee shall be employed on a regular basis or terminated.

EMPLOYEE RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES UNDER THE FAMILY AND MEDICAL LEAVE ACT

Basic Leave Entitlement

FMLA requires covered employers to provide up to 12 weeks of unpaid, job-protected leave to eligible employees for the following reasons:

- for incapacity due to pregnancy, prenatal medical care or child birth;
- to care for the employee's child after birth, or placement for adoption or foster care;
- to care for the employee's spouse, son, daughter or parent, who has a serious health condition; or
- for a serious health condition that makes the employee unable to perform the employee's job.

Military Family Leave Entitlements

Eligible employees whose spouse, son, daughter or parent is on covered active duty or call to covered active duty status may use their 12-week leave entitlement to address certain qualifying exigencies. Qualifying exigencies may include attending certain military events, arranging for alternative childcare, addressing certain financial and legal arrangements, attending certain counseling sessions, and attending post-deployment reintegration briefings.

FMLA also includes a special leave entitlement that permits eligible employees to take up to 26 weeks of leave to care for a covered service member during a single 12-month period. A covered service member is: (1) a current member of the Armed Forces, including a member of the National Guard or Reserves, who is undergoing medical treatment, recuperation or therapy, is otherwise in outpatient status, or is otherwise on the temporary disability retired list, for a serious injury or illness*; or (2) a veteran who was discharged or released under conditions other than dishonorable at any time during the five-year period prior to the first date the eligible employee takes FMLA leave to care for the covered veteran, and who is undergoing medical treatment, recuperation, or therapy for a serious injury or illness.*

The FMLA definitions of "serious injury or illness" for current service members and veterans are distinct from the FMLA definition of "serious health condition".

Benefits and Protections

During FMLA leave, the employer must maintain the employee's health coverage under any "group health plan" on the same terms as if the employee had continued to work. Upon return from FMLA leave, most employees must be restored to their original or equivalent positions with equivalent pay, benefits, and other employment terms. Use of FMLA leave cannot result in the loss of any employment benefit that accrued prior to the start of an employee's leave.

Eligibility Requirements

Employees are eligible if they have worked for a covered employer for at least 12 months, have 1,250 hours of service in the previous 12 months*, and if at least 50 employees are employed by the employer within 75 miles.

Special hours of service eligibility requirements apply to airline flight crew employees.

Definition of Serious Health Condition

A serious health condition is an illness, injury, impairment, or physical or mental condition that involves either an overnight stay in a medical care facility, or continuing treatment by a health care provider for a condition that either prevents the employee from performing the functions of the employee's job, or prevents the qualified family member from participating in school or other daily activities.

Subject to certain conditions, the continuing treatment requirement may be met by a period of incapacity of more than 3 consecutive calendar days combined with at least two visits to a health care provider or one visit and a regimen of continuing treatment, or incapacity due to pregnancy, or incapacity due to a chronic condition. Other conditions may meet the definition of continuing treatment.

Use of Leave

An employee does not need to use this leave entitlement in one block. Leave can be taken intermittently or on a reduced leave schedule when medically necessary. Employees must make reasonable efforts to schedule leave for planned medical treatment so as not to unduly disrupt the employer's operations. Leave due to qualifying exigencies may also be taken on an intermittent basis.

Substitution of Paid Leave for Unpaid Leave

Employees may choose or employers may require use of accrued paid leave while taking FMLA leave. In order to use paid leave for FMLA leave, employees must comply with the employer's normal paid leave policies.

Employee Responsibilities

Employees must provide 30 days advance notice of the need to take FMLA leave when the need is foreseeable. When 30 days notice is not possible, the employee must provide notice as soon as practicable and generally must comply with an employer's normal call-in procedures.

Employees must provide sufficient information for the employer to determine if the leave may qualify for FMLA protection and the anticipated timing and duration of the leave. Sufficient information may include that the employee is unable to perform job functions, the family member is unable to perform daily activities, the need for hospitalization or continuing treatment by a health care provider, or circumstances supporting the need for military family leave. Employees also must inform the employer if the requested leave is for a reason for which FMLA leave was previously taken or certified. Employees also may be required to provide a certification and periodic recertification supporting the need for leave.

Employer Responsibilities

Covered employers must inform employees requesting leave whether they are eligible under FMLA. If they are, the notice must specify any additional information required as well as the employees' rights and responsibilities. If they are not eligible, the employer must provide a reason for the ineligibility.

Covered employers must inform employees if leave will be designated as FMLA-protected and the amount of leave counted against the employee's leave entitlement. If the employer determines that the leave is not FMLA-protected, the employer must notify the employee.

Unlawful Acts by Employers

FMLA makes it unlawful for any employer to:

- interfere with, restrain, or deny the exercise of any right provided under FMLA; and
- discharge or discriminate against any person for opposing any practice made unlawful by FMLA or for involvement in any proceeding under or relating to FMLA.

Enforcement

An employee may file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Labor or may bring a private lawsuit against an employer.

FMLA does not affect any Federal or State law prohibiting discrimination, or supersede any State or local law or collective bargaining agreement which provides greater family or medical leave rights.

FMLA section 109 (29 U.S.C. § 2619) requires FMLA covered employers to post the text of this notice. Regulation 29 C.F.R. § 825.300(a) may require additional disclosures.

APPENDIX B

EMPLOYEE RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES UNDER THE FAMILY AND MEDICAL LEAVE ACT

Basic Leave Entitlement

FMLA requires covered employers to provide up to 12 weeks of unpaid, job-protected leave to eligible employees for the following reasons:

- for incapacity due to pregnancy, prenatal medical care or child birth;
- to care for the employee's child after birth, or placement for adoption or foster care;
- to care for the employee's spouse, son, daughter or parent, who has a serious health condition; or
- for a serious health condition that makes the employee unable to perform the employee's job.

Military Family Leave Entitlements

Eligible employees whose spouse, son, daughter or parent is on covered active duty or call to covered active duty status may use their 12-week leave entitlement to address certain qualifying exigencies. Qualifying exigencies may include attending certain military events, arranging for alternative childcare, addressing certain financial and legal arrangements, attending certain counseling sessions, and attending post-deployment reintegration briefings.

FMLA also includes a special leave entitlement that permits eligible employees to take up to 26 weeks of leave to care for a covered service member during a single 12-month period. A covered service member is: (1) a current member of the Armed Forces, including a member of the National Guard or Reserves, who is undergoing medical treatment, recuperation or therapy, is otherwise in outpatient status, or is otherwise on the temporary disability retired list, for a serious injury or illness*; or (2) a veteran who was discharged or released under conditions other than dishonorable at any time during the five-year period prior to the first date the eligible employee takes FMLA leave to care for the covered veteran, and who is undergoing medical treatment, recuperation, or therapy for a serious injury or illness.*

The FMLA definitions of "serious injury or illness" for current service members and veterans are distinct from the FMLA definition of "serious health condition".

Benefits and Protections

During FMLA leave, the employer must maintain the employee's health coverage under any "group health plan" on the same terms as if the employee had continued to work. Upon return from FMLA leave, most employees must be restored to their original or equivalent positions with equivalent pay, benefits, and other employment terms. Use of FMLA leave cannot result in the loss of any employment benefit that accrued prior to the start of an employee's leave.

Eligibility Requirements

Employees are eligible if they have worked for a covered employer for at least 12 months, have 1,250 hours of service in the previous 12 months*, and if at least 50 employees are employed by the employer within 75 miles.

Special hours of service eligibility requirements apply to airline flight crew employees.

Definition of Serious Health Condition

A serious health condition is an illness, injury, impairment, or physical or mental condition that involves either an overnight stay in a medical care facility, or continuing treatment by a health care provider for a condition that either prevents the employee from performing the functions of the employee's job, or prevents the qualified family member from participating in school or other daily activities.

Subject to certain conditions, the continuing treatment requirement may be met by a period of incapacity of more than 3 consecutive calendar days combined with at least two visits to a health care provider or one visit and a regimen of continuing treatment, or incapacity due to pregnancy, or incapacity due to a chronic condition. Other conditions may meet the definition of continuing treatment.

Use of Leave

An employee does not need to use this leave entitlement in one block. Leave can be taken intermittently or on a reduced leave schedule when medically necessary. Employees must make reasonable efforts to schedule leave for planned medical treatment so as not to unduly disrupt the employer's operations. Leave due to qualifying exigencies may also be taken on an intermittent basis.

Substitution of Paid Leave for Unpaid Leave

Employees may choose or employers may require use of accrued paid leave while taking FMLA leave. In order to use paid leave for FMLA leave, employees must comply with the employer's normal paid leave policies.

Employee Responsibilities

Employees must provide 30 days advance notice of the need to take FMLA leave when the need is foreseeable. When 30 days notice is not possible, the employee must provide notice as soon as practicable and generally must comply with an employer's normal call-in procedures.

Employees must provide sufficient information for the employer to determine if the leave may qualify for FMLA protection and the anticipated timing and duration of the leave. Sufficient information may include that the employee is unable to perform job functions, the family member is unable to perform daily activities, the need for hospitalization or continuing treatment by a health care provider, or circumstances supporting the need for military family leave. Employees also must inform the employer if the requested leave is for a reason for which FMLA leave was previously taken or certified. Employees also may be required to provide a certification and periodic recertification supporting the need for leave.

Employer Responsibilities

Covered employers must inform employees requesting leave whether they are eligible under FMLA. If they are, the notice must specify any additional information required as well as the employees' rights and responsibilities. If they are not eligible, the employer must provide a reason for the ineligibility.

Covered employers must inform employees if leave will be designated as FMLA-protected and the amount of leave counted against the employee's leave entitlement. If the employer determines that the leave is not FMLA-protected, the employer must notify the employee.

Unlawful Acts by Employers

FMLA makes it unlawful for any employer to:

- interfere with, restrain, or deny the exercise of any right provided under FMLA; and
- discharge or discriminate against any person for opposing any practice made unlawful by FMLA or for involvement in any proceeding under or relating to FMLA.

Enforcement

An employee may file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Labor or may bring a private lawsuit against an employer.

FMLA does not affect any Federal or State law prohibiting discrimination, or supersede any State or local law or collective bargaining agreement which provides greater family or medical leave rights.

FMLA section 109 (29 U.S.C. § 2619) requires FMLA covered employers to post the text of this notice. Regulation 29 C.F.R. § 825.300(a) may require additional disclosures.

AN ADMINISTRATOR CAN ONLY LOG IN STUDENT ACTIVITY TIME IF HE/SHE ATTENDED A STUDENT EVENT AND WAS AVAILABLE TO HELP SUPERVISE.

V. Leave Days

A. Personal Illness Days

Annual personal illness days are granted to administrators as follows:

- 200--220 days-10 sick leave days
- 221+ days-11 sick leave days

Unless otherwise noted, West Lafayette administrators may transfer up to a total of one hundred (100) personal illness days from their previous school district(s). Beginning with the first two years as an administrator, they may transfer up to seven days (7) per year. Beginning the third year they are employed as West Lafayette administrators, and then every other year (odd years), up to fifty (50) personal illness days can transfer. On the "even years", they may transfer only three (3) personal illness days. These days can only be used in the case of Long-Term Disability. However, all accumulated personal sick days can be used to determine retirement incentive supplement.

Personal business leave days should not be used for the purpose of extending vacations. Any unused personal business days will be transferred to accumulated sick leave.

Vacation days are days off without pay and should be used prior to June 30. Unless otherwise noted in an administrator's contract and approved by the Board of School Trustees, accumulated vacation days beyond the annual allotment can only be used for emergency leave situations and retirement incentive supplement calculations, capped at 50 days.

F. Professional Leave Days

All administrators must request in writing from the Board/Superintendent permission to receive professional leave days. The administrator may request reimbursement for travel, food (limited by Board Policy) lodging and registration fees. The School Board must approve any over night professional leave.

VI. Long-Term Leaves

A. General Leave Provisions

The Superintendent may at her/his discretion, upon the presentation of good and sufficient reason, recommend a leave of absence for any professional employee.

All requests for long-term leaves and extensions of such leaves will be made to the Superintendent in writing as soon as possible and disposition shall be made in writing.

An administrator on leave should inform the Superintendent in writing not later than March of the year on leave of his/her intent to return for the following school year. If the administrator on leave fails to notify the Superintendent by March 1, the Board shall by registered or certified mail, request of the administrator that such notice is given. If the Board's letter is returned marked "no forwarding address" or if the administrator fails to give such notice by April 1, the administrator shall be considered to have resigned and the position shall be deemed as open.

Upon return from a leave, an administrator will be assigned to the same position if available, or, if not, to a substantially equivalent position provided he/she is not affected by a Reduction in Force.

Administrators may continue their insurance coverage while on leave of absence by informing the Chief Financial Officer's office in writing of their desire to do so and by forwarding the premiums for such insurance to the insurance department. All benefits to which an administrator was entitled at the time a leave of absence commenced, including unused sick leave, will be restored upon their return.

B. Parental Leave

Subject to Family Medical Leave Act.

C. Graduate Studies

Administrators may be granted a leave of absence without pay to pursue graduate and or post graduate studies. Application should be made in writing to the Superintendent who shall make a recommendation to the Board for action.

D. Military Leave

Military leave will be granted to any administrator who is inducted or enlists in any branch of the armed forces of the United States. Upon return from such leave, an administrator will be placed on the salary schedule at the level which he/she would have achieved had he/she remained actively employed in the system during the period of his/her absence up to a maximum of four (4) years. The administrator shall have up to sixty (60) days after release from active duty to notify the Board of his/her intention to return to the system.

VII. ATTENDANCE PROCEDURES FOR ADMINISTRATORS

Administrators set the example for the rest of the staff and the students in the West Lafayette Schools. The effective administrator practices regular attendance, promptness, and always keeps his secretary informed of his whereabouts. The secretary, in turn, informs the administrator's supervisor when the administrator's absence from the building or place of responsibility will be prolonged.

Administrators of the West Lafayette Community School Corporation are expected to observe the following routine attendance guidelines:

- A minimum 8-hour day, being on duty one-half hour before and after the student day.
- The Central Office hours are 7:30 a.m. – 4:30 p.m.

By 7:30 a.m. each morning, administrators who are to be absent or tardy for any reason, shall notify their immediate supervisor. Long-term absences or pre-arranged absences can be reported in advance.

Principals shall verify the appropriateness of the absence of the assistant principal.

The Superintendent shall verify the appropriateness of the absence of all other administrators.

Personal Business and School Business days shall be arranged for in advance (at least 48 hours) except in the case of an emergency. In case of an emergency, the Superintendent shall verify the appropriateness of the absence.

Vacation days must be arranged in advance (2 weeks) and normally will not be taken on days when school is in session by administrators who supervise school buildings. When such a request is made, it shall be submitted to the Superintendent for approval.

In school buildings which have more than one administrator assigned, absence of an administrator for School Business shall be limited to one administrator unless the Superintendent approves multiple absences.

Any questions regarding attendance which are not answered in this administrative regulation, should be discussed with the immediate supervisor before the administrator concerned takes what he/she feels to be the appropriate action.

The Board of School Trustees shall act as final arbiter in cases of disagreements and misunderstandings.

VIII. WORK DAY FOR SCHOOL OFFICE PERSONNEL

The workday for the West Lafayette Schools is an 8-hour day with a person on duty at least one-half hour before and after the student day, with 30 minutes provided for lunch. The workday also provides for a 15-minute break in the morning and 15-minute break in the afternoon for clerical staff.

It is recognized that in some schools it is not always possible for secretaries and/or principals, especially at the elementary school levels, to enjoy adequate free time for lunch. Office personnel must be available to handle telephone calls, visits from parents, and discipline problems during the entire school day including lunch periods.

Therefore, in those schools where such a lunch break for secretaries and principals is impossible, a compensatory period of time equal to a lunch period may be requested for at the end of the school day. This means that the elementary school workday for office personnel can be shortened up to 30 minutes. It is essential, however, that evidence be available to substantiate the shortening of the day. Furthermore, it is imperative that the day not be shortened less than thirty minutes after students have been dismissed. This means that, without exception, all elementary school offices will be open and manned at least thirty minutes after students have left, and all telephone calls will be answered.

Jr/Sr High School offices shall remain open from that point at which the day starts for teachers until thirty minutes after students have left. Principals have the authority to stagger the hours of both secretaries and administrators to assure that the offices can be manned during this period of time and at the same time, not require overtime commitment on the part of either group of personnel, except as is required by emergencies.

All administrators must guard against the misuse of overtime and compensatory time by secretarial personnel. Overtime work must be requested by the building administrator and approved in advance by the Chief Financial Officer except in the case of an emergency. It is the building administrator's responsibility to make decisions regarding need for overtime work. Overtime work must be documented on the payroll reporting sheets. Of course, administrator time, being flexible, does not warrant the payment of overtime.

IX. ETHICS IN BUSINESS

Any member of the staff who participates in formulation of recommendations regarding the use of an outside organization or business by the West Lafayette Community School Corporation shall indicate any economic interest by the staff member or spouse in that organization or business to the superintendent of schools prior to the time the Board considers accepting services, materials, or other assistance from said organization or business.

There should be no activity carried on by any person employed by the school corporation that could legitimately be interpreted as for the personal benefit or convenience of that person. This applies to use of staff, equipment, and all other phases of work which are vulnerable to suspicion by other employees and the general public.

Appendix A

This information is based upon 2011 Federal guidelines. If Federal benefits change, this information is no longer valid.

Full Retirement

If you were born before 1938, you will be eligible for your full Social Security benefit at the age of 65.

However, beginning in the year 2003, the age at which full benefits are payable will increase in gradual steps from 65 to 67. The following table lists the steps:

Age To Receive Full Social Security Benefits

Year of Birth	Full Retirement Age
1937 or earlier	65
1938	65 and 2 months
1939	65 and 4 months
1940	65 and 6 months
1941	65 and 8 months
1942	65 and 10 months
1943-1954	66
1955	66 and 2 months
1956	66 and 4 months
1957	66 and 6 months
1958	66 and 8 months
1959	66 and 10 months
1960 and later	67

Reduced Benefits As Early As Age 62

No matter what your “full” retirement age is, you may start receiving benefits as early as age 62. However, if you start your benefits early, they are reduced five-ninths of one percent for each month before your “full” retirement age. For example, if your full retirement age is 65 and you sign up for Social Security when you’re 64, you will receive 93 1/3 percent of your full benefit. At age 62, you would get 80 percent. (Note: The reduction will be greater in future years as the full retirement age increases.)

Addendum A

(Administrators hired on or after July 1, 2015)

Effective July 1, 2017, administrators hired on or after July 1, 2015 shall begin to receive an annuity that will be placed annually, after each year of successful service, into the administrator's/director's annuity account. Administrators must serve WLCSC for at least seven (7) years before the annuity account becomes "vested" and transportable should the administrator leave. Administrators who leave the service of WLCSC prior to seven (7) years will forfeit their annuity account. This annuity account is in addition to the annuity contributions found on pages 5-6, H. Annuity.
